DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

In line 1 of claim 15, "ore" should read "or".

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 11 and 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fenwick (U.S. Patent No. 4,321,939). The patent to Fenwick discloses a fluid control apparatus comprising a fluid conveyance (2, 3, 4), a valve (5) positioned in the conveyance, the valve (5) including a flexible portion (2a) secured to receive fluid from an upper containment (1) including a preset fluid level to cause the valve (5) to restrict the flow of fluid through the conveyance. A float-controlled valve (10, 11) automatically controls the preset fluid level in the upper containment (1). The preset fluid level is determined from the liquid height of a fluid storage point upstream from the valve (5), col. 2, lines 29-56. A rigid portion (13, 14) is connected to the flexible portion (2a) to actuate the valve (5) based on the expansion of the flexible portion.

Claims 12, 13, 21, 26 and 27 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moore (U.S. Patent No. 4,182,371). The patent to Moore discloses a fluid control apparatus comprising a valve (30) with a flexible portion (20) to control fluid flow in a conveyance (11, 13), a top to down hydrostatic pressure acting on the flexible portion (20) to actuate the valve (30), col. 3, lines 35-50.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-10, 14-20 and 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
